

THIRTEEN. The first game of life—Bowl. The English now punish vice; the Chinese reward it more.—They reward virtue. —This is nothing so much affected by the fluctuations of the weather as the play of women with a new bonnet. —A taper and a spark of whiskey were left together, which would be drunk first? —Whis is like a sewing machine? Because it makes needles needless. —If you intend to do a mean thing, wait till to-morrow. If you are to do a noble thing, do it now. —Ladies are beginning to carry, slung at the waist belt, small daggers in costly gold and jeweled sheaths. —One school-boy remarks that when his teacher undertakes to show him what is what, he only finds out which is switched. —Our hen-pecked neighbor remarks that notwithstanding the mildness of the atmosphere it's always cold where his wife is, when he comes home late at night. —A young lady about to be married, being asked if the Rev. Mr. H. was to marry her, blushingly said, Why not! it is my father. —A young man in Tennessee was presented with a fancy pen-wiper by his sweetheart, and "wore" it to church the next Sunday as a cravat. —Editing a newspaper is very much like raking the fire—every one thinks he can perform the operation better than the man who holds the poker. —See how wonderful are the ways of nature in Illinois! A pair of boots cost just two loads of potatoes, and to raise the potatoes just wears out a pair of boots. —A worthy old farmer who was being worried in his cross-examination by a lawyer in Maine, exclaimed: Look here, Squire, don't you ask a good many foolish questions? —What house pet is it that is so generally admired, sought after, and valued yet more abused, trampled upon, kicked about, looked down upon and whipped more than any other? A carpet. —A man on being received into a small-pox hospital at Bedford, was asked if he had ever been vaccinated. Yes, he replied, when a child, and I was christened at the same time; but neither of them took. —A stranger with an impediment in his speech, having closely examined our cemetery anxiously enquired of a friend, Where do you bury your assassins? —A political orator, speaking of a certain general whom he admitted, said he was always on the field of battle, where bullets were the thickest. Where was that? In the ammunition wagon. —Josh Bill says: There is one thing about a hen that looks like wisdom—they don't kackle much until after they have laid their egg. Sun phoiks are always a bragging and kacking what they are going to do beforehand. —It is said that the newspapers are the means of a great many ladies "getting their backs up." The best conducted papers often make a great bustle among them, and nearly every panderer is a newspaper waif basket. —An article nearly two feet long fell from a Main street building, Friday afternoon and went point first down the back of an elderly man who was standing on the walk below talking about foreign missions. The subject was immediately changed. —The little son of a very prominent minister of N. Y. said to his father: Pa. St. Paul was a Yankee. How do you know that, my son? Why, sir, in the 18th verse of the 8th chapter of Romans he says, For I reckon, None but Yankees say reckon. —The young ladies of a New York Seminary are puzzled over the exact meaning of the following inscription recently discovered on the wall of the building: Young ladies should set good examples, for young men will follow them. —An intelligent foreigner, who is quite unable to understand and appreciate American manners, writes home that when a great man dies in the United States, the first thing done is to propose a fine statue in his honor; next, to forget to order any statue, and last, to wonder what became of the money. —Boston is getting every bit as bad as New York. A gentleman who combined in himself the two sacred functions of clergymen and editor was set upon by foot pads in Bromfield street on Saturday evening, and nothing but his lusty lungs and nimble legs saved him from robbery and perhaps murder. Criminals must be desperate and terribly hard up, where even editors and ministers are in danger of being robbed. —The following dialogue is said to have taken place in a school near Salisbury, England: Now, then, the first boy of the grammar class stand up! First boy stands up, blushing. Here I be, sir. Examiner—Well, my good boy, can you tell me what are vowels? First boy—Vowls, sir! Ees, of course I can. Examiner—Tell me, then, what are vowels? First boy, grinning at the simplicity of the question—Vowls, sir! Why, vowls be chickens. —The correspondent of the New York Herald in speaking of the Washington receptions, reviews an anecdote connected with the late Senator Frost of this State. He says the "cabinet ladies," as they like to call themselves, are at home on Wednesday, when they have the services of the department messenger to open their doors and announce visitors. Now-a-days, these messengers are all of the African persuasion, but in sacra tempore they were of the Celtic race, and one of them who prided himself on his grammatical knowledge, on being told to announce the Senator and the Misses Frost, roared out Senator Frost and the Misses Frost.	J O B P R I N T I N G . —The first game of life—Bowl. —The English now punish vice; the Chinese reward it more.—They reward virtue. —This is nothing so much affected by the fluctuations of the weather as the play of women with a new bonnet. —A taper and a spark of whiskey were left together, which would be drunk first? —Whis is like a sewing machine? Because it makes needles needless. —If you intend to do a mean thing, wait till to-morrow. If you are to do a noble thing, do it now. —Ladies are beginning to carry, slung at the waist belt, small daggers in costly gold and jeweled sheaths. —One school-boy remarks that when his teacher undertakes to show him what is what, he only finds out which is switched. —Our hen-pecked neighbor remarks that notwithstanding the mildness of the atmosphere it's always cold where his wife is, when he comes home late at night. —A young lady about to be married, being asked if the Rev. Mr. H. was to marry her, blushingly said, Why not! it is my father. —A young man in Tennessee was presented with a fancy pen-wiper by his sweetheart, and "wore" it to church the next Sunday as a cravat. —Editing a newspaper is very much like raking the fire—every one thinks he can perform the operation better than the man who holds the poker. —See how wonderful are the ways of nature in Illinois! A pair of boots cost just two loads of potatoes, and to raise the potatoes just wears out a pair of boots. —A worthy old farmer who was being worried in his cross-examination by a lawyer in Maine, exclaimed: Look here, Squire, don't you ask a good many foolish questions? —What house pet is it that is so generally admired, sought after, and valued yet more abused, trampled upon, kicked about, looked down upon and whipped more than any other? A carpet. —A man on being received into a small-pox hospital at Bedford, was asked if he had ever been vaccinated. Yes, he replied, when a child, and I was christened at the same time; but neither of them took. —A stranger with an impediment in his speech, having closely examined our cemetery anxiously enquired of a friend, Where do you bury your assassins? —A political orator, speaking of a certain general whom he admitted, said he was always on the field of battle, where bullets were the thickest. Where was that? In the ammunition wagon. —Josh Bill says: There is one thing about a hen that looks like wisdom—they don't kackle much until after they have laid their egg. Sun phoiks are always a bragging and kacking what they are going to do beforehand. —It is said that the newspapers are the means of a great many ladies "getting their backs up." The best conducted papers often make a great bustle among them, and nearly every panderer is a newspaper waif basket. —An article nearly two feet long fell from a Main street building, Friday afternoon and went point first down the back of an elderly man who was standing on the walk below talking about foreign missions. The subject was immediately changed. —The little son of a very prominent minister of N. Y. said to his father: Pa. St. Paul was a Yankee. How do you know that, my son? Why, sir, in the 18th verse of the 8th chapter of Romans he says, For I reckon, None but Yankees say reckon. —The young ladies of a New York Seminary are puzzled over the exact meaning of the following inscription recently discovered on the wall of the building: Young ladies should set good examples, for young men will follow them. —An intelligent foreigner, who is quite unable to understand and appreciate American manners, writes home that when a great man dies in the United States, the first thing done is to propose a fine statue in his honor; next, to forget to order any statue, and last, to wonder what became of the money. —Boston is getting every bit as bad as New York. A gentleman who combined in himself the two sacred functions of clergymen and editor was set upon by foot pads in Bromfield street on Saturday evening, and nothing but his lusty lungs and nimble legs saved him from robbery and perhaps murder. Criminals must be desperate and terribly hard up, where even editors and ministers are in danger of being robbed. —The following dialogue is said to have taken place in a school near Salisbury, England: Now, then, the first boy of the grammar class stand up! First boy stands up, blushing. Here I be, sir. Examiner—Well, my good boy, can you tell me what are vowels? First boy—Vowls, sir! Ees, of course I can. Examiner—Tell me, then, what are vowels? First boy, grinning at the simplicity of the question—Vowls, sir! Why, vowls be chickens. —The correspondent of the New York Herald in speaking of the Washington receptions, reviews an anecdote connected with the late Senator Frost of this State. He says the "cabinet ladies," as they like to call themselves, are at home on Wednesday, when they have the services of the department messenger to open their doors and announce visitors. Now-a-days, these messengers are all of the African persuasion, but in sacra tempore they were of the Celtic race, and one of them who prided himself on his grammatical knowledge, on being told to announce the Senator and the Misses Frost, roared out Senator Frost and the Misses Frost.	S. JACOBS, Dealers EMBROIDERED, BEADS, TRIMMINGS AND CLOTHES, KID, GLOVES, &c. Orders by mail promptly attended to. Burlington, Vt., Feb. 13, 1872. 303124 H. E. DYER, FOLK'S PORTABLE ENGINES. From 5 to 25 Horse Power, for MARSH CUTTERS SHEARERS, BOATYARD, TURNERS AND HOLLOWAY AND OTHER ROTARY PUMPS FOR CISTERNS AND WATER PIPE. All sizes for Water, Steam and Gas. All kinds of Fittings, Valves, Seats, and other Goods. Steam Whistles, Gages, Valves, Seats, Gauge and Pipe Cocks, &c. BUBBLE HOME AND BUSINESS, LEATHER BELT ING AND LACING, BUBBLE AND FLAX PACKING AND COTTON WAX. Engines and other Quarry Machinery put in operation at short notice. Also, Steam, Water and Gas Fixtures. PORTER'S ATTENTION RATE TO PRACTICAL CARE OF PLANT. 15 Merchant's Row, Burlington, Vt., March 20th, 1872. 303125	BUTLAND, VERMONT. M A R S & J E R K O W S K I Have Just Received a LARGE AND SPLENDID STOCK OF FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING, AT THE C O R N E R S T O R E , BATES HOUSE, BLOCK—GORES MERCHANTS BREW AND COTTON. Where you can buy Working-Suits for Double and Twill Suits Men's Case Suits All Wool Suits Mixed Suits Men's Fine Brooch Suits Beautiful Drapery Coats and Vests, from Heavy All Wool Business Suits $13.50 to $25.00 Heavy Silk Suits Children's Suits $5.00 to $12.00	W M. WILLIAMS & SON, Manufacturers of ALL KINDS OF HARNESS. We are using the best of oak stock, also, timber of oak manufacture. Made in the "old fashioned way." With over thirty years experience in the man- ufacture of leather we claim an advantage, superior to those usually furnished. The best of B. A. Sole Leather, Neats Foot Oil, Pawing Hair, &c., constantly on hand. Custom-Skins tanned as usual. CASH PAID FOR HIDES AND SKINS. Burlington, Feb. 13, 1872. 303126 T H E D O M E S T I C	F U L L E R T O N ' S Marble And Granite Works, Factory Point, Vermont. The Most Extensive in New England, MONUMENTS, TABLETS, AND CEMETERY WORK of all descriptions, from M A R B L E A N D G R A N I T E constantly on hand. This establishment has acquired the reputation for producing honest work, second to none, and longer lasting than any other Works. Customers can depend upon receiving perfect satisfaction to all trades with us. W. H. FULLERTON, office and works at Manchester Depot. Factory Point, Vt., Feb. 28, 1871. 301240a A D D R E S S C A R D S . Handsomely printed, nearly equal to Engraved Cards.	N O T I C E . Letter Heads, Note Heads, Bill Heads, Monthly Statements, Shipping Bills, Way Bills, Envelopes, Business Cards, Store Bills, Auction Bills, Hand Bills, Programmes, Dodgers, Circulars, Wedding Cards, Address Cards, Visiting Cards, Ball Tickets, Show Cards, Pamphlets, By-Laws, Constitution Blanks, S A T I S F A C T I O N . G U A R A N T E E D . Having received letters patent for my entire new method of roofing, I solicit particular attention to the facts, that IT IS CHEAPER THAN SHINGLES. is perfectly light, easily made EURE PROOF. All unsettled accounts are assumed by me and a settlement is required on or before 15th instant. Yours respectfully, JOHN T. BEACH. Factory Point, March 6, 1872. 441340b L. D. COY. VILLAGE BOOK STORE. S E M I N A R Y AVENUE, MANCHESTER. Constantly on hand a general assortment of MISCELLANEOUS & SCHOOL BOOKS, PUBLICATIONS OF THE BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETIES, BLAKE BOOKS, STATIONERY, PENS, INK, PENCILS, ENVELOPES, and all articles in this branch of trade. Also, AN ASSORTMENT OF JEWELRY. I M P R O V E D R O O F I N G . Having received letters patent for my entire new method of roofing, I solicit particular attention to the facts, that IT IS CHEAPER THAN SHINGLES. is perfectly light, easily made EURE PROOF. cannot be blown off will last a lifetime and is quite simple. Those seeking information will address me at Beaumont Center, Vt. G. O. W. ROBINSON, Bennington Center, Vt., Feb. 21st, 1872. 303127 B U R R A N D B U R T O N S E M I N A R Y . M A N C H E S T E R, V E R M O N T . A Boarding and Day School for Ladies and Gentlemen. Offers the advantages of a Full Board of short and longer periods, and a complete course of study, including Courses of Study, through drill in the English with special attention to the classics and young men preparing for college. The other advantages of the school, the courses of study, the price, etc., etc., begin Wednesday, March 20th. For details, see rooms or other information, address the Principal. H. R. SHAW, Manchester, Vt., Jan. 28th, 1872. 303128 D E N T I S T R Y ! The subscriber may be found at all times at his office in Purline's Block, prepared to do all kinds of DENTAL WORK in the best manner, and aliving price, Complete and partial sets of teeth made at short notice, and warranted to give satisfaction. Particular attention paid to filling and preserving teeth. Chloroform and ether administered under the direction of a qualified physician when de- sired. Employ use of the latest instruments in the dental art, and greatest good work in all cases. Tooth and tooth powder of superior quality always on hand. GEO. H. SWIFT Burlington, Vt., Feb. 16, 1872. 303129 B O O T S A N D S H O E S . A large and superior stock of Boots and Shoes continually on hand, comprising Misses' Gloves and Children's Socks, Gaiter, Pe- bble, Gaiter, Cloth, Kid, Buttons and Polished Boots and Slippers. Men's, Boys and Girls' Shoes. BOOTS, SHOES AND BUBBLE GOODS, all of which I am selling. A T R E D U C E D P R I C E . At my store on Sunday Morn., where I am al- ways happy to see people. L. D. COY. R E L I A B L E I N S U R A N C E ! Orders by Mail will receive T A K E A C E R T I F I C A T E N O R T H E A S T E R N M U T U A L L I F E A S S O C I A T I O N , V E R M O N T . P R O T E C T Y O U R F A M I L Y . The Expense of Insurance on One-third the Value of the House, Stock Plan Company. EXPIRES, NOV. 1. For persons aged 20 to 30, Premiums, per annum, $2.00, assessments $1.10. For each death, Premium, $1.00. Age 30 to 40, $2.00, assessments $1.10. Age 40 to 50, $2.00, assessments $1.10. Age 50 to 60, $2.00, assessments $1.10. Age 60 to 70, $2.00, assessments $1.10. Age 70 to 80, $2.00, assessments $1.10. In case of death, Number about 1000. Apply to H. E. POWELL, At Manchester, and at Burlington, Vt., May 20th, 1872. 303130 D. K. SIMONDS. A N D R E W J. M A S O N . EAST DORSET, VERMONT. A few rods west of the Railroad Depot. C A R R A G E A N D W A G O N M A K E R . New Work made to order: Also carriages and seats M. R. TOWNSLEY'S PATENT ELASTIC SPLICE BED BOTTOM. The best strengthened. Particular attention paid to REPAIRING. ALL WORK WARRANTED. Burlington, Vt., May 20th, 1872. 303131 J O U R N A L J O B P R I N T I N G O F F I C E . Manchester, Vermont, Jan. 1st, 1872.	B U T L A N D, V E R M O N T . M A R S & J E R K O W S K I Have Just Received a LARGE AND SPLENDID STOCK OF F A L L A N D W I T T E R C L O T H I N G , AT THE C O R N E R S T O R E , BATES HOUSE, BLOCK—GORES MERCHANTS BREW AND COTTON. Where you can buy Working-Suits for Double and Twill Suits Men's Case Suits All Wool Suits Mixed Suits Men's Fine Brooch Suits Beautiful Drapery Coats and Vests, from Heavy All Wool Business Suits $13.50 to $25.00 Heavy Silk Suits Children's Suits $5.00 to $12.00 W M. WILLIAMS & SON, Manufacturers of ALL KINDS OF HARNESS. We are using the best of oak stock, also, timber of oak manufacture. Made in the "old fashioned way." With over thirty years experience in the man- ufacture of leather we claim an advantage, superior to those usually furnished. The best of B. A. Sole Leather, Neats Foot Oil, Pawing Hair, &c., constantly on hand. Custom-Skins tanned as usual. CASH PAID FOR HIDES AND SKINS. Burlington, Feb. 13, 1872. 303126 T H E D O M E S T I C	F U L L E R T O N ' S Marble And Granite Works, Factory Point, Vermont. The Most Extensive in New England, MONUMENTS, TABLETS, AND CEMETERY WORK of all descriptions, from M A R B L E A N D G R A N I T E constantly on hand. This establishment has acquired the reputation for producing honest work, second to none, and longer lasting than any other Works. Customers can depend upon receiving perfect satisfaction to all trades with us. W. H. FULLERTON, office and works at Manchester Depot. Factory Point, Vt., Feb. 28, 1871. 301240a A D D R E S S C A R D S . Handsomely printed, nearly equal to Engraved Cards.	N O T I C E . C. F. SWETT. B Y A N E W M E T H O D O F L I F E A S S U R A N C E , more favorable results than any hitherto experienced may be enjoyed by persons possessed of constitutional longevity, who keep their policies in force until the middle or latter part of their lives. These results are obtained by a novel application of the Time-life principle to the distribution of dividends, and by allowing the assured to sell his policy to the Company only after sixted years. W. H. FULLERTON, office and works at Manchester Depot. Factory Point, Vt., Feb. 28, 1871. 301240a A D D R E S S C A R D S . Handsomely printed, nearly equal to Engraved Cards.
T H I R T Y E I G H T . —The first game of life—Bowl. —The English now punish vice; the Chinese reward it more.—They reward virtue. —This is nothing so much affected by the fluctuations of the weather as the play of women with a new bonnet. —A taper and a spark of whiskey were left together, which would be drunk first? —Whis is like a sewing machine? Because it makes needles needless. —If you intend to do a mean thing, wait till to-morrow. If you are to do a noble thing, do it now. —Ladies are beginning to carry, slung at the waist belt, small daggers in costly gold and jeweled sheaths. —One school-boy remarks that when his teacher undertakes to show him what is what, he only finds out which is switched. —Our hen-pecked neighbor remarks that notwithstanding the mildness of the atmosphere it's always cold where his wife is, when he comes home late at night. —A young lady about to be married, being asked if the Rev. Mr. H. was to marry her, blushingly said, Why not! it is my father. —A young man in Tennessee was presented with a fancy pen-wiper by his sweetheart, and "wore" it to church the next Sunday as a cravat. —Editing a newspaper is very much like raking the fire—every one thinks he can perform the operation better than the man who holds the poker. —See how wonderful are the ways of nature in Illinois! A pair of boots cost just two loads of potatoes, and to raise the potatoes just wears out a pair of boots. —A worthy old farmer who was being worried in his cross-examination by a lawyer in Maine, exclaimed: Look here, Squire, don't you ask a good many foolish questions? —What house pet is it that is so generally admired, sought after, and valued yet more abused, trampled upon, kicked about, looked down upon and whipped more than any other? A carpet. —A man on being received into a small-pox hospital at Bedford, was asked if he had ever been vaccinated. Yes, he replied, when a child, and I was christened at the same time; but neither of them took. —A stranger with an impediment in his speech, having closely examined our cemetery anxiously enquired of a friend, Where do you bury your assassins? —A political orator, speaking of a certain general whom he admitted, said he was always on the field of battle, where bullets were the thickest. Where was that? In the ammunition wagon. —Josh Bill says: There is one thing about a hen that looks like wisdom—they don't kackle much until after they have laid their egg. Sun phoiks are always a bragging and kacking what they are going to do beforehand. —It is said that the newspapers are the means of a great many ladies "getting their backs up." The best conducted papers often make a great bustle among them, and nearly every panderer is a newspaper waif basket. —An article nearly two feet long fell from a Main street building, Friday afternoon and went point first down the back of an elderly man who was standing on the walk below talking about foreign missions. The subject was immediately changed. —The little son of a very prominent minister of N. Y. said to his father: Pa. St. Paul was a Yankee. How do you know that, my son? Why, sir, in the 18th verse of the 8th chapter of Romans he says, For I reckon, None but Yankees say reckon. —The young ladies of a New York Seminary are puzzled over the exact meaning of the following inscription recently discovered on the wall of the building: Young ladies should set good examples, for young men will follow them. —An intelligent foreigner, speaking of a certain general whom he admitted, said he was always on the field of battle, where bullets were the thickest. Where was that? In the ammunition wagon. —Josh Bill says: There is one thing about a hen that looks like wisdom—they don't kackle much until after they have laid their egg. Sun phoiks are always a bragging and kacking what they are going to do beforehand. —It is said that the newspapers are the means of a great many ladies "getting their backs up." The best conducted papers often make a great bustle among them									